Not Just For Pandas Anymore

THE ENVIABLY CLEVER CONSORTIUM OF DESIGNERS AT BAMBU HAS launched a line of hand-crafted tabletop and food-preparation products made from organically grown bamboo. Not only is bamboo a durable, versatile, renewable resource, the company dedicates at least one percent of net sales to preservation and restoration of the natural environment. Shown: hand-coiled, waterproof salad bowls. Small, $16; large, $46. Custom colors and finishes available. www.bambuhome.com.
